

Community Volunteer

Location: Anywhere UK / Head Office, Stroud

Purpose of the role

We are looking for enthusiastic, flexible volunteers who are willing to consider requests we may have, from helping at an organised event to supporting our campaigns or using their initiative to raise awareness of meningitis and the work of Meningitis Now in their community.

What's involved:

- Raising awareness: at events; with health professionals and schools local to you and by participating in Meningitis Now campaigns e.g. Student Awareness
- Helping with on-the-day fundraising event support
- Picking up collection tins or collecting cheques on our behalf
- Sourcing and giving awareness talks
- Helping with event promotion or day-to-day administration for those local to Head Office in Stroud

What we're looking for:

- Good communication skills and a friendly, positive attitude
- Reliability, commitment and flexibility
- Ability to work on your own initiative or as part of a team
- Willingness to travel locally and consider travel of up to 30 miles
- Willingness to develop a basic understanding of the disease
- Appropriate representation of Meningitis Now

What you will gain from this opportunity:

- A rewarding experience making a difference to people affected by meningitis through raising awareness of the disease, Meningitis Now and the work it does
- The satisfaction of being part of an enthusiastic, supportive community
- Support, supervision and materials needed to undertake your role

About Meningitis Now

Meningitis Now exists to save lives and rebuild futures by funding research, raising awareness and providing support. Our vision is a future where no one in the UK loses their life to meningitis and everyone affected gets the support they need to rebuild their lives.

In volunteering for Meningitis Now you play a vital role in helping us to achieve this.
